

"Picknick"

100X80 cm, acrylic on canvas, 2011

A self taught painter, he started in 1985 with drawings and "croquis", during the last 10 years he's been working in oil and acrylics. Since 2003 he mentored by David Isenberg, in Copenhagen. He participated in several exhibitions such as in Biennale Chianciano 2009 in Tuscany, Italy; Group exhibition at Gagliardi Gallery in London 2010; Eternal Eve in Tel Aviv, Israel; and he is participating in the upcoming Izmir Biennale 2011, Chianciano 2011 and Florence Biennale 2011 in Firenze, Italy. He has held many solo exhibitions at Danish institutions and galleries since 2001.

A figurative-expressionist, his painting philosophy is inspired by Cézanne, Kleé and followers. Motives: Copenhagen cityscapes, "croquis", "stilleben". He focuses on integrating lines, tones, colors and emotions into neo-expressionist/new-figurative paintings of his experienced "ecozones in-the-mind".
